His reasons for placing himself in that position were that Gen'! We first come to Mr. Clingman's explanation of Lie reasons for opposing Gen. Taylor's adminstration. The answer which the inquisitive trio received from the old hero of Buenavisto, was very much in the style of his answer to Santa Auna's pompous summons to surrender, before that bettle. Our North Carolina fire-cater says:

As 3 apprehended and pre-jeted, as soon a the policy of Gen. Taylor's Administration wa descriped with reference to the great slaver question then pending. I, in conjunction with a majority of the southern Whig members of Conimpority of the southern Whig members of con-grees, was shown and opposition to it. Though such was the condition of things for several such was the readdition of things for several months before Gen. Taylor's death, yet the public was not generally aware of it. His sudden de-mose prevented an open and volent collision.— About the limt of July, 1859, it was determined at a meeting of a decided majority of the South-ern Whig members of Congress, that it was our duty before an open decidation of hostilities. In at a mosting of a decided importly of this southern Wing manubers of Congress; that it was one duty before an upen declaration of hostilities, to intrine the them President of our purposes, &confirmer gentlemen were selected for that purpose, to with Hen. C. M. Conned, the present Secretary of wor, Hon, Humphrey Marshall, of Kentucky, and Redert Toombs, of Georgia. They, in accordance with the views of the meeting, separately called on the President, and gave him to understand that he must expect our determined opposition, if he persided in resisting such a compromise as see advected, and insisted on his policy of minimizing California and New Mexico, as States, and supporting the claim of the latter to the territory on this side of the This Grande. According to their several reports to us. Gen. Taylor was inter on time and or not state virging. According to their several reports to us, Gen. Taylor was modelling, and frankly declared to them that as soon as the Constitution of New Mexico reached late, which he looked for in a few days, he should late, which he looked for in a few days, he should http://which has to Congress recommending its adsend a message to Congress recommending its admission of ourses a State, as he had done in the case and foldiformia; that he also declared that Texas had no right to the territory claimed by her, and that he was dispused to support the claim of New Mexico against her.

Mr. Clingman proceeds to some length in this strain, until, going back to 1849, he finds fault till, going back to 1000, no manager is scott, as follows:

assumer of 1849, his Canada annexaer was published. Gen. Taylor baving cinaugurated, it assumed probable that he semonimated for election, with the supit was then supposed, of the whole south, he necessary to assure the Northern vote
tions an amerascle him. General Scott, It would be necessary to assure the Northern vote in opposition, to supersede him. Guseral Scott, identifier, while expressing his wish for the acquisition of Canada, volunturily, without being questioned on the point, went to declare his opposition to the acquisition of Mexican torritory. In authannee, he said that while he was for taking territory that would strengthen the North, he was opposed to such acquisition as might, in like manner, keep the South even with the North. I then look upon this as no open, undisquised declaration of his wish to be regarded as the Northern Presidential candidate.

Now comes the gist of Mr. Clingman's lutter.his partienter reasons for preferring Mr. Pierce. constituents, and we are much mistaken if the peo-We inthe special attention to them :-But it may be said that if we refuse to support I such attacks upon him.

Gen. Scott. Gen. Pieros will be elected. If he were a dangerous man, there might be force in the objection. I have closely scrutinized his course, since the beginning of the course. Upon all genesions connected with Stavery and the rights of the South, no man that I know of, from any section of the Union, has a better record. While he has been, as for as I know, true to all the great essential interests of his own section, his votes and specilies prove him to have been eminently just and liberal to us. Since his retirement from Congress his course has been consistent and national. He was active in putting down in the Democratic party of New Hampshire, doin P. Hale, the abolition candidate for the Presidency. More recently be did the same with respect to Atwood. Mr. Atwood, a political and personal friend to Gen. Pierce, was the Democratic nomines for Governor. Shortly, before the election, when there was every prospect of the success of Mr. Atwood, as his opponent, the Whig candidate, was like all other Whigs of New Hampshire, hostile to the Fugitive Slave Law—he likewise wrote a letter expressing his opposition to to that neasure. General Pierce, being only then a private citizen, was under no particular objection interfere. He might, too, have said that both the candidates were nearly standing on the same ground. Besides, he has the people of N. Hampshire had any practical interest of the Fugitive Slave Law. It was there a mere question of justice to the South; and yet Gen. Pierce took it apon himself to travel some distance to see Mr. Atwood, and on his refuel to take back his letter, he commenced a movement which resulted in degrading Atmost from his position as the Democratic candidates from a meet determination to do justice to the constitutional rights of the South. How does Gen. Scott's conduct compare with tire. Fifth Ward Rally To-night.

The Japan Expedition.

The Mississippi takes out a variety of articles as presents to the Emperor of Japan—to conciliate him, establish the natives, and prepare the way for the desired negotiation. A locomotive and a committy of railroad iton will be taken along with for the desired negotiation. A locanotive and in quantity of railroad iton will be taken along with which to show him the operations of a railroad.—Telegraphic apparatus and wire will also be taken, with which to demonstrate how the lightnings have been converted to the use of civilization.—Two of the ship's engineers (Messis E. D. Robie and G. W. Alexander), are learning the use of the apparatus in order to explain it to the Emperor. An apparatus for taking dagneriestypes will also be used and explained for the information of His Mejesty, by Lieut, Budd. A benotifal barge is too heart to be presented to him. Also, howes of domestic goods, comprising a great variety of manufactured articles, which are to give the Emperor an idea of the industrial pursuits of this country, and perhaps awaken a desire on his part for an exchange of commodities between Japan and the United States. The Mississippi will take ten boots for her use. There are four beautiful brass nine pounders, mounted on carriages, which are to be used, if necessary, by parties of Engineers engaged in surreying. They can be fixed in the bows of boats which may be employed in exploring the coast. Should this expedition succeed in its undertaking, and establish commercial relations between the United States and that extensive and secluded nation, it will richly repay the risk and expenditure incurred.—New Year Fork

The Congressional Election—Great Decrease is the Democratic Majority in this District. The returns from Morrow and Heron counties are not yet received although the Locofoco Candidate is, of course, elected. It is, however, generally conceded that Lindsby's majority is only about 550, showing a falling off from Gov Wood's majority in the same counties at the last Gabernatorial election, of 1550 votes! WHAT CONSTITUTES A GENTLE-

THE resider's definition would probably be, true kind-dess, consideration for the feelings of others, and honesty and liberality of sentiment. These qualities do, in reality constitute the gentleman; and in a seciety organized upon he busis of moral worth, horead of wealth, would pass current as a sufficient passport to the highest circles. But unfortunately for many of Nature's nebbest worker-gods-constitute more than noval worth and groun-infortunately for many of Nature's neblest wicker-gods-gentlemen,—something more than moral warth and remu-ine politicists are requisite to obtain the appellation of a gentleman. In most cases a good, if nor fashformbly cloth-oid exterior, is the only tound which affords incress to the sodety even of those who profess to be guided by other standards than appearances.
